HEALTHY PLANTS

Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil.

Did you ever see a rosebush which—despite the most beneficent environment of soil—of sunshine—and of atmosphere,—seemed never to achieve a healthy growth.

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart.

You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vaseline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys the germ, and healthy hair is the sure result.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit Mich.

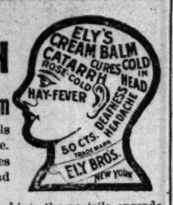
Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages.

Ely's Cream Balm



cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents.

SOCIETY OF THE CINCINNATI.

The standing committee of the Virginia Society of the Cincinnati held an important meeting at the Westmoreland Club, Richmond, on Wednesday, February 14th, 1906, with the following members present:

Dr. George Ben Johnson, William Weldon Bentley, Mr. P. H. C. Cabell, Mr. Heth Lorton, Dr. Philip T. Southall, Mr. A. Rap. Tatum, Mr. James B. Bayler, Major William Hancock Clark and Mr. Tucker Carrington.

A large degree of interest has been aroused in the affairs of the Virginia Cincinnati, and fully two dozen applications for membership were favorably acted upon at the above meeting.

At the special meeting of the Society of the Cincinnati held in this city on December 15th, 1905, there was a large and enthusiastic attendance. That meeting was the largest held by the Virginia Society of the Cincinnati for a period of more than one hundred years. New by-laws were adopted and much other important business was transacted, including the appointment of a membership committee, printing committee, nominating committee, entertainment committee and others. These committees have been actively at work since December 15th, and they also held meetings Wednesday at the Westmoreland Club.

The original members of the Virginia Society, numbered fully four hundred, and the standing committees and the sub-committees have determined to hunt up the eligible heirs to the dorement rights now existing and to restore the society to its former large and influential membership. The eldest direct male discendants of the revolutionary officers are entitled to membership in the Cincinnati after being duly elected.

Honorary members are also entitled as follows:

Honorary members may be admitted to the society for their own lives only, and provided always that the number of honorary members of the society shall not exceed a ratio of one to four of the hereditary members thereof.

Men in the country eminent for their abilities and patriotism, whose views may be directed to the same laudable objects with those of the Cincinnati.

Men who are eminent lineal descendants or representatives of those who were distinguished by high military or civil virtues and services in the Revolutionary War.

At the meeting of the Virginia Society on Wednesday, the following officers were elected:

Dr. George Ben. Johnston, president; Major William Weldon Bently, vice-president; Mr. P. H. O. Cabell, secretary; Mr Heth Lorton, treasurer; the Rev. Henry Bedinger, chaplain; Mr. Tucker Carrington, assistant secretary.

Delegates—George Ben. Johnston, Patrick Henry Cary Cabell, Heth Lorton, William Weldon Bentley, Augustus Randolph Tatum.

Alternates—Philip Turner Southall, Tucker Carrington, Blair Lee, George William Beale, Samuel Selden Brooke.

Nominating committee—William Hancock Clark, chairman; Rev. Henry Bedinger, William Weldon Bentley.

Annual Meeting May 10th—Heth Lorton, chairman; Robert Withers Massie, Dr. George Ben Johnston.

Committee of Three—Heth Lorton, chairman; Dr. George Ben. Johnston, William Hancock Clark.

Membership Committee.—Heth Lorton, chairman; Dr. Philip T. Southall, William Weldon Bentley.

Printing Committee—Heth Lorton, chairman; William Hancock Clark, James Bowen Baylor.

The Virginia Society will hold its annual stated meeting in Richmond on May 10, 1906. A large attendance is expected, as there will be present many prominent men, including several distinguished orators of national reputation. In addition to the banquet, there will be public speaking in the Senate chamber at the Capitol, to which special cards of invitation will be issued to the prominent people of Richmond, including a large number of ladies.—[Richmond Times Dispatch.

The California Trunk Mystery.

Mrs. Emma Le Doux, or Mrs. McVicar, as she calls herself was arrested at Antioch, Cal., yesterday in connection with the murder of Albert N. McVicar, the Jamestown, Cal., miner, whose body was found in a trunk at the Southern Pacific station Saturday night. It was to meet Mrs. Le Doux that McVicar went to Stockton.

The woman is declared to have purchased the trunk in which the body was placed, and also the rope with which it was bound. If she committed the crime, a man must have aided her, as McVicar was powerfully built. His life is said to have been insured for $5,000. He had $80 in cash, and it is believed that robbery was the motive for the crime.

Mrs. Le Doux, when arrested, declared that carbolic acid was administered to McVicar on Saturday morning by "Joe" Miller, but that she had nothing to do with the case, aside from assisting in putting the body in the trunk. She gives no reason for the killing.

Dr. Hull, one of the autopsy surgeons, stated yesterday that blows on the head, causing congestion of the inner lining of the skull, had caused death, and that there was no evidence of poison.

Mrs. Le Doux is well known in the Tenderloin district of San Francisco. She had been married several times before she met McVicar.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, MAR. 27, 1906.

THE Tammany Society, of New York city, announced last week the platform on which it would fight this year's State campaign, and also the issues on which the next presidential election will turn. It favors making the national fight on the issue of tariff reform, and in the State campaign will confine itself to advocating rigorous punishment for insurance grafters and opposition to municipal ownership of public utilities. This means that Tammany has determined to put a spoke in the wheel of W. R. Hearst's candidacy for the governorship. One of the resolutions adopted opposes socialism in these words:

We hold that the cure for all these abuses is not in socialism, which, by enormously extending the power of government, must aggravate them, but in democracy, which, by excluding government from any interference whatever with private industry, must cure them.

Tammany's platform is safe and democratic and no good citizen need fear standing upon it.

STRAWS SHOW the way the wind blows and the effect another coal strike will have on the business of the country and the distress it will bring to the poor may be judged from the following paragraphs:

Orders have been issued by Mechanical Superintendent George W. Wildin, of the Erie Railroad, suspending locomotive repair work at all shops on the system. Five thousand men are laid off. The action is said to be due to the threatened coal strike.

The price of coal in the Pittsburg district is advancing rapidly and large orders are being received from local manufacturers, from Cleveland and as far west as Chicago. The critical situation at Indianapolis has caused a rush of orders from all points. Coal is selling at an advance of 25 cents per ton for large amounts, and much was being bought at those figures. A further advance is looked for. The poorer class of residents of that district will be the chief sufferers.

THERE WILL be no tariff revision by this Congress. This is the declaration made by Representative Payne, floor leader of the House, in a letter to Representative McCall, of Massachusetts, one of the tariff revision leaders of that State. Mr. McCall had called attention in his communication not only to the declaration in the republican State platform of Massachusetts for tariff revision with adherence to the policy of protection, but also to the declaration in the republican national platform regarding the readjustment of duties when conditions demand, and entrusting the question to a republican President and Congress. The Massachusetts view as presented is that conditions have so changed as to demand changes over the Dingley rates which have served nine years. Mr. Payne, who, as chairman of the ways and means committee, wields power in controlling tariff questions in the House, declares that the committee is not ready to disturb the republican policy of protection, and that because of the approaching elections Congress is not prepared to review the tariff schedules in that "calm, judicial frame of mind so necessary to the proper preparation of a tariff act." He insists that the tariff should not be tampered with, and says this is the view of the majority of the party. The democrats should make a revision of the tariff the next issue and go before the people with this as the chief plank in their platform.

BY ADOPTING a favorable report on a bill to remove the tax from alcohol made for technical purposes, a subcommittee of the ways and means committee in the House yesterday started on its legislative career a measure that may revolutionize heating and lighting in America. It is also predicted that the spirit, which costs little to make, will be substituted for gasoline and coal oil as fuel for motors and even large engines. It is this possibility that has made the Standard Oil interests oppose the bill. The coal trust, too, will suffer by the introduction of alcohol as a producer of power. The law will take the internal revenue tax off what is known as "denaturized" alcohol, which can be made from any grain, root, vegetable or fruit containing starch. The bill ought to be approved by Congress without delay.

PROPRIETARY medicine manufacturers had a hearing Saturday before a subcommittee of the House committee on interstate and foreign commerce on the proposed amendment by Representative Lovering, of Massachusetts, to the pure food bill. The amendment permits the use of limited amounts of alcohol, opium cocaine and other poisonous substances in patent medicines without stating on labels that they are contained in the preparation. The adoption of such an amendment would do away with all the good provisions of the bill. If these medicine men want to put poison in their decoctions they should certainly be made to properly label them.

Eugene Carrie, the well-known painter, died in Paris today. The cause of death was cancer, from which he had been a long sufferer.

From Washington.

Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]
Washington, March 27.

In a signed editorial in the American Federationist, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, sets forth clearly the view which his organization takes of the arrest of the officials of the Western Federation of Miners for the assassination of ex-Governor Steunenberg, of Idaho. In describing the arrest of these men, he says the governor of Colorado had, without hearing, consented to these men being forcibly taken to Idaho, arrested by the Idaho authorities in the dead of night, put on a "special train," carried from their home State to a foreign State and there lodged in prison without the opportunity of communicating with each other, their families, or counsel. * * * The charge against the imprisoned men is a very grave one, but there are due forms of law by which the guilt or innocence of men charged with crime is established; as well is there provided the lawful process by which such men may be extradited and taken to the State whose laws have been violated. * * * The whole procedure is repugnant to the Anglo-Saxon conception of human justice."

The Comptroller of the Currency has received a telegram from the assistant cashier of the First National Bank at West Texas, that it has closed its doors. National Bank Examiner Logan has been appointed receiver. The resources and liabilities of the bank at the date of its last report of condition, January 29, 1906, were $157,506,54 each.

President Roosevelt this afternoon sent a message to Congress on the subject of preservation of Niagara Falls. He recommends that Congress enact into law the suggestions of the American members of the International Waterways Commission for the preservation of Niagara Falls, without waiting for the negotiating of a treaty.

The prospects of ship subsidy legislation at this session of Congress are gradually growing more remote. Speaker Cannon has given no encouragement to the New England members who sent a delegation to urge him to give consideration to the measure which has passed the Senate and which has been pigeonholed with the House committee on merchant marine and fisheries, of which Gen. Grosvenor, of Ohio, is chairman. The feeling in the committee is by no means a unit. On the contrary, it is so closely divided, that those who are opposed to ship subsidy legislation claim a victory on the ground of an alleged tie in the committee. They say that the vote stands nine to nine, and that because of this fact it will be impossible to carry a motion to report the bill to the House.

The races at Benning were again well attended today, the weather being an improvement on that of yesterday. In yesterday's races the Virginia horses did well.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, March 27.

SENATE.

Mr. Knox of Pennsylvania, gave notice in the Senate today that he would discuss the railway rate regulation bill tomorrow, immediately after the conclusion of routine business.

The chair laid before the Senate a legislative appeal from Porto Rico, for protection of the coffee industry of that island.

Mr. Lodge introduced an amendment which he will offer to the railway rate bill providing imprisonment as well as heavy fines for the granting of rebates and unlawful discriminations by railway corporations.

Mr. Tillman today got after national banks which have been contributing money for campaign purposes. In a speech in the Senate he declared that "the crime" should be punished. He declared that to his own knowledge one bank had contributed $17,000 in 1896. "I believe the national bank contribution to the republican campaign that year reached one million dollars," he exclaimed.

He said he had been trying to get the committee on privileges and elections to act but was meeting with no success. He characterized District Attorney Jerome of New York, as "a reformer fallen from grace." He adverted to the beef trust case, and remarked that the question of the propriety of an appeal was being considered by the government.

How can there be an appeal in a criminal case?" inquired Mr. Lodge.

Mr. Tillman thanked the Senator "for the superior knowledge" which illuminated his ignorance and with cutting sarcasm, declared that there seemed to be "an infernal anxiety" to protect the corporations.

"I wish the Senator from Wisconsin and some other Senators would explain a few things on this point," he shouted. "We're paying no attention to the human man—the man with blood and a belly to feed," and then with mock solemnity and mock tears, he declared that the poor people were being fed with the excuse that any attempt to get at these corporations would be unconstitutional."

HOUSE.

When the House met today, it was decided to eulogize the late Representative George A. Patterson of Pennsylvania, on Easter Sunday, April 15.

An additional urgent deficiency appropriation bill was then considered in committee of the whole. It carries $60,000 to meet the expenses of the Third International Conference of American States to be held shortly at Rio Janeiro, and provides for a transfer of $45,000 from the anti-trust fund to the Interstate Commerce Commission to enable it to examine into the subject of railroad monopolies in coal and oil.

Warrants for Insurance Officials.

New York, March 27.—Three warrants were secured by District Attorney Jerome today from Magistrate Moss in the Centre Street Police court for men who have been prominent in insurance circles. When Mr. Jerome was before Judge O'Sullivan, recently, he stated that he might ask for warrants for George W. Perkins, of J. P. Morgan & Co.; Cornelius N. Bliss, treasurer of the republican national committee, to whom the payment of $48,000 was made by Mr. Perkins for the New York Life Insurance Company, and George B. Cortelyou, chairman of the republican national committee. Naturally the gossip today about the criminal courts building centered about these three names.

Justice O'Sullivan yesterday instructed the New York grand jury that it must investigate the political contributions made by the big insurance companies in order to determine whether the officers making them had comitted larceny.

After they had quarreled and made up in New York yesterday afternoon, Chas. Reinecker coaxed his wife to sit on his lap, and while he was embracing her he shot the woman in the left temple. As soon as he could shift the muzzle of the revolver Reinecker sent a better into his own head. Neither will live.

After being threatened with dismissal from school for using slang Jessie McGregor, fourteen years old, died from inhaling illuminating gas last evening in her bedroom, in Brooklyn. The girl was dead when her father, John McGregor, an engineer, returned from work.

In Pittsburg yesterday five men were placed under arrest charged with complicity in the plundering of the Enterprise National Bank. The men arrested are "small fry"—the secretary of W. H. Andrews, a supposed partner of T. Lee Clark, the cashier of the bank who committed suicide on the day of the failure, and three clerks of the bank.

President James H. Linford, of the Brigham Young College, a Mormon institution at Logan, Utah, told the members of the Senate committee on privileges and elections at the Smoot hearing yesterday that he believed in the principle of polygamy, and admitted that Zyna R. Card, the librarian of the college, is a plural wife.

Secretary Bonaparte will succeed Attorney-General Moody on July 1, it is believed, and George von L. Meyer will become Secretary of the Navy. Judge Chas. Magoon, the Governor-General of the Isthmian canal zone and a member of the Isthmian Canal Commission, may be appointed Secretary of War should Secretary Taft retire.

Four firemen, one the foreman of an engine company, were killed in the factory fire at Bedford and Downing streets, in old Greenwich village, New York, yesterday afternoon. One other fireman was injured so severely that he may not recover. Three more were hurt slightly. Nearly 100 families from adjacent tenements were evicted by the police to save life. More than fifty girls whose escape was cut off were rescued. One building was crushed into a heap of debris, and half a dozen others were burned so that they are uninhabitable.

Near Couchee, eight miles south of Runge, Tex., a Mexican named Ramon overtook a vehicle contsining two young women and a little boy Sunday. Ramon climbed into the rear of the buggy and cut the throat of one of the women, causing instant death. The horse became frightened and began to run, whereupon Ramon drew a revolver and shot the other woman dead. Jealousy prompted the deed. The two dead women were daughters of Alexander M. Henry, a well-to-do ranchman of that county. Officers are searching for Ramon.

Six railroad laborers were killed and a score were injured, several probably fatally, when a train on the Wyoming division of the Chicago and Northwestern Railrod dropped into a swollen stream through an undermined bridge near Natsona, Wyoming, mention of which was made in yesterday's Gazette. The locomotive passed over the bridge, but several cars, including a coach, fell into the flooded river. The coach, containing twenty-six men, was crushed under a tank car that followed it into the canyon. Many of the men were caught under the wreckage, and it was hours before they were taken out. One or two were drowned. The weakened condition of bridges made it unsafe to send a train to the scene, and hand cars were pressed into service by the three surgeons and several citizens. Shortly after starting, the relief party ran into a severe snowstorm and were compelled to abandon the hand cars and proceed afoot.

The contract for the electric railway from Baltimore to Washington has been awarded to the Fidelity Construction Company, of Detroit.

PUTS BLAME ON NOBODY.

The committee of the Legislature charged with inquiring into the inquest as to whether bills had been tampered with during the cause of the recent session yesterday submitted its report. The first matter touched upon was the Portsmouth water bond matter, in which connection the committee says:

"We find from the evidence that T. J. Wool, attorney for the Portsmouth, Berkley and Suffolk Water Company, had an amendment to offer to this bill and by direction of Senator John S. Chapman, chairman of the Senate committee on county, city and town organization, the amendment was filed with the bill, to be laid before the committee when the bill came up for consideration. This amendment would have prevented the sale of the bonds when the bill came up for consideration. The amendment was rejected and your committee finds that no wrong appears in this matter."

On the bill relating to the payment of the expenses of lunatics the report says in part:

"From the evidence before the committee it is ascertained that in the Senate committee a substitute was offered to the House bill and certain amendments were adopted to conform the substitute to the views of the committee. A subcommittee was appointed to perfect a substitute along the lines indicated, which reported back to the committee two alternative substitutes drawn by Conway R. Sands, neither of which met the views of the full committee. The committee adopted the one marked 'two,' subject to certain amendments, to wit: Increasing the exemptions of property from $1,000 to $2,000 and providing that suit could be brought only in the Circuit Court within the jurisdiction of which the insane defendant lived; striking out that portion of the bill which allowed suit to be brought in Richmond or in the county or corporation in which the hospital is located; reducing the compensation for collecting from 20 to 10 per cent. of the recovery; which amendments were written on separate slips of paper.

"It is further ascertained that all these amendments, which were of vital importance, were abstracted or lost from the papers before they were acted upon by the Senate, but were subsequently reinserted in the bill on the floor of the Senate. Your committee is unable to fix the responsibility for this act upon any person or persons.

"The bill was closely followed from its inception until after it passed into the enrolling office of Messrs. Conway R. Sands and Philip B. Shields. We find that Mr. Ordway Puller, a member of the conference committee on the part of the House, acted with indiscretion in attempting to insert into the report an amendment increasing the compensation of the special agent to be appointed under the provisions of the bill from 10 to 15 per cent. of the amount involved without the consent of his conferees. We believe, however, that he was actuated by his friendship for Conway R. Sands, who, as disclosed in the evidence, was the author of the bill and expected to be appointed by the Governor as special agent. Notwithstanding the many vicissitudes and attempted alternations to which this bill was subjected, your committee deems it proper to state that it eventually passed and became a law in the form and shape intended by the legislative body."

Continuing, the report says:

In the course of the investigation it came to the knowledge of your committee that a check for $25 had been sent to the enrolling clerk, W. S. Gooch, by A. A. Campbell, another attorney for the South and Western Railway Company, through the medium of Clerk Joseph Button, of the Senate. Mr. Gooch had done some extra enrolling work, for which the parties at interest thought he should be compensated. It was noted that no inducement had been held out for doing this extra work, and compensation, therefore, had been offered only after the same had been performed. Mr. Gooch declined to accept the check.

"Your committee finds that no fraud or bribe was either attempted or committed, and while exonerating all the parties to this transaction of any evil intent your committee does desire to express its strong condemnation of the practice of offering money as either pay or reward to public officers and employes for doing a public duty. The committee recommends that the rules be so amended as to require the enrolling clerk to enroll bills in the order in which they pass the general assembly."

This report is signed by John W. Churchman (chairman), R. T. Gregory, Aylett B. Coleman and John P. Neimeyer.

Senator T. Ashby Wickham, of Henrico, files a dissenting report, in which he says, in part:

"I do not think that evidence shows that either Mr. Sands or Mr. Shields has done anything in this matter forbidden by law or good morals. As to Mr. Puller, it appears that in writing the conference report he acted hurriedly and without sufficient warrant in assuming that Mr. Chapman knew of and approved his proposed amendment in the conference committee, changing the agent's compensation from 10 to 15 per cent., but it does not appear that he acted in bad faith.

Death of Dr. Nelson.

Dr. Hugh Thomas Nelson, 60 years old, died in Charlottesville yesterday afternoon after a week's illness of pneumonia. He was born in Albemarle county, the son of Robert W. and Virginia Lafayette Nelson, and on both sides of his family was a great-grandson of Gen. Thomas Nelson, a signer of the Declaration of Independence and commander of the Virginia troops at Yorktown. Dr. Nelson entered the Confederate army in the second year of the war and served to the end After the war he studied medicine at the University of Virginia, began his practice in Halifax county, but took up his residence in Charlottesville in 1891, where he had been a leader of his profession. He was a member of the State Medical Examining Board, an instructor in the medical department of the University of Virginia, president of the Virginia State Medical Society, member of the National Association of Railway Surgeons and other kindred organizations. Today's Telegraphic News

Steamboats Burned.

Newport, R. I., March 27.—The palatial steamer Plymouth, of the Fall River line, was burned to the water's edge; the steamer Puritan, the Priscilla, the Naugatuck, and the City of Lowell, all of the same line, were scorched by the intense heat and the Fall River passenger station and other buildings on the wharf were badly damaged by a fire here early today. The total loss is estimated at $1,500,000.

Reports of loss of life were positively denied by officials of the police and fire departments and only one man was injured. This was Driver Sullivan of a fire engine, who was run down by his engine, suffering a broken arm.

The fire started on the Plymouth shortly before two o'clock. It began in the bow of the boat, deep in the hold, and soon flames were shooting forth and smoke was coming in suffocating clouds.

The thirteen men on the steamer were aroused and began to give battle to the flames. The job was too much for them, however, and the fire alarm was sounded.

Suddenly the flames from the big Plymouth seemed to take possession of every part of her. They tore from the hold to the first, then the second and third hurricane deck, and shot towards the sky. They were caught by the wind and fanned in every direction, first to one and then the other, as if seeking to lick up the other steamers moored close by. Some one cut loose the Priscilla, but she did not float out into the harbor until her white paint had been blistered and her sides were scorched. Then the Puritan, the Naugatuck, and the City of Lowell were scorched. Then the Puritan, the Naugatuck, and the City of Lowell were freed from the big hawsers that bound them, and when they did not float free tugs came up quickly and towed them to a safe distance. All of them had been damaged more or less.

By this time, the flames had jumped to the piers which burned like paper. The flames ran from one end to the other, and in a few minutes they were a burning mass.

A general alarm was sent in which called every engine company in Newport to the scene, and messages were sent to Fall River and Providence fire departments to hold a number of apparatus in readiness to be sent here should assistance be required. Before aid was necessary, however, the local companies had the flames under control.

How the fire started is not known at the present time. Those who were on board stated that they had not the slightest idea what could have caused the fire.

The burned steamer was owned by the New England Transportation Company, a subsidiary company of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company. She was a side-wheel vessel, and was built at Chester, Pa., in 1890. She cost in the neighborhood of $1,000,000. She was constructed of steel, with interior fittings of wood. Her length was 367 feet, width, 50 feet; and depth of hold, 21 feet. She was always a remarkably easy boat in a sea way and had little vibrations while running at full speed.

Fireman Lewis Lamont, of New York, who slept aboard the Plymouth is missing and is believed to have lost his life. The firemen are searching for his remains.

Miners and Operators Disagree.

Indianapolis, March 27.—The joint scale committee of the bituminous miners and operators at 9:30 o'clock this morning voted a disagreement. They decided to call all the joint conference this afternoon at 2 o'clock. It is estimated that 400,000 of the coal miners are effected by the decision. This number, it is said, will in all probability go on a strike at midnight Saturday, when the existing labor contracts expire. Vice President T. L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers, who was one of the first to come from the committee room, made this statement: "A motion is to call the joint conference in session this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The committee will report a failure of the operators and miners to agree." Asked who had made the motion, Mr. Lewis said: "It was made by one side and seconded by the other." The committee went into session shortly after nine o'clock this morning and was not in session over half an hour.

The final cause leading up to the committee's action was the demand of the miners for an increase of 5.9 per cent. in wages. The original demand was for 12.5 per cent., but this was not serious y considered by the committee during the sessions each day since March 20.

Mahanoy City, Pa., March 27.—Unless a settlement is reached this week, the mine workers in the Schuylkill field will not report for work after Saturday. This was decided upon last night at a meeting of the locals in the Mahanoy district.

Burning of a Theatre.

Meriden, Conn., March 27.—The Meriden Theatre block on Church street and the Theatre Auditorium in the rear were destroyed by fire today. For a time it seemed as though a large portion of the business section of the city was doomed. The block which forms the theatre entrance is a brick three story structure and the theatre auditorium was formerly the old First Congregational Church, a wooden structure, which was moved there 20 years ago. The rear of the Winthrop Hotel and the Wilcox block, two of the finest buildings in the business centre on Colony street, adjoined the theatre and it looked as though it would be impossible to save these. The firemen turned a number of streams of water on all sides of the burning structure, however, and by good work saved all the surrounding property. The walls of the theatre fell in with a crash during the height of the fire adding to the spectacular features of the blaze and several people were injured. The fire caused a panic in the Winthrop Hotel and many guests and others hastily prepared to leave the building and many did so. But no damage was done to the hotel. The total loss is estimated at $80,000.

Bloody Riot at Bucharest.

Bucharest, Roumania, March 27.—A bloody riot, started by students, occurred here last night in which two persons were killed and 300 were injured. A philanthropic performance given at the National Theatre, which was organized by the Crown Princess Marie, was the cause of the outbreak. The performance was given in French, and this angered the students who resolved to attend the theatre and show their disapprobation. The students occupied all the streets leading to the theatre and when the police attempted to dislodge them resisted. The police were driven off with stones and clubs which were thrown at them. The students then erected barricades, overturning tram cars to be used for this purpose. Soldiers were called out and they attacked the barricades with their bayonets, firing several volleys into the students as well. The latter replied with revolvers and bombs and it was after 11 o'clock before they were driven from their positions.

Assaulted and Robbed.

Lynn, Mass., March 27.—Unconscious in the woods all night from the effects of an assault by highwaymen, Mrs. Alice Walker, 51 years old, who recently went to Saugus from Philadelphia, was found today by the crew of an electric railway car, after she had succeeded in making her way to the line of the railway. The woman was in a serious condition. This was due in part from a blow received on the head, resulting in a concussion of the brain, and in part also to the exposure to which she was subjected all night in the open air. After striking her down and robbing her, the ruffians threw her over a stone wall and partly covered her up under brush, so that she could not be seen by passers-by.

According to Mrs. Walker, she left Lynn at seven o'clock last night, a passenger on the Boston & Northern Railway car bound for North Saugus. She left the car near Howlett's Pond to visit the home of friends. Shortly after the car had disappeared a man suddenly confronted her out of the darkness and struck her upon the head with a heavy weapon. Her handbag containing a gold watch and an amount of money was wrested from her hand and two rings were pulled from her fingers. Her assailant had been joined by another and the men decided to secrete her by carrying her back into the woods. Shortly after she was thrown over the wall, Mrs. Walker became unconscious from loss of blood. She did not gain her senses until shortly after daylight. She cannot describe her assailants and the police have little hope of capturing them.

Revolutionary Plans Frustrated.

Warsaw, March 27.—The revolutionists recently planned a general railway strike, but the government officials upon hearing of the threatened trouble court martialled immediately all of the railway employes who were not willing to work. The revolutionists are now envolving another scheme. It is to destroy all bridges, tunnels, roadbeds, viaducts and telegraph lines by dynamite. The carrying out of this plan is to be commenced in April.

Libau, Russia, March 27.—During last week, 1,405 Jews left this place and vicinity. Their destiation is New York.

St. Petersburg, March 27.—In connection with the oft-renewed rumors that another railway strike is likely to occur in the near future, Premier Witte has told friends that he will prevent a renewal of the railway strike at any cost.

Fight at a Funeral.

Berlin, March 27.—A free fight occurred today at the funeral of a workman named Stubenvall. He recently divorced his wife and this it is believed, hastened his death. The divorcee attended the funeral services and was attacked by Stubenvall's friends. The woman's party retaliated and a fight took place around the open grave. When the belligerents had been separated and quiet restored it was found that six persons had been badly injured. Many arrests were made.

Prisoners Sentenced.

New York, March 27.—Robert S. Spriggs, the negro politician and dive keeper, convicted on complaint of Hattie Warren, of abduction as a second offense, was sentenced today by Judge Cowing to a term of twenty years in Sing Sing prison, the maximum penalty. Judge Cowing in passing sentence characterized the prisoner as a living example of absolute depravity. In the case of Sallie Bennett, who pleaded guilty to abduction as a first offense, was then arraigned and sentenced to a term of ten years in the Auburn prison for women.

Operation for Appendicitis.

Vienna, March 27.—The Archduchess Maria Josepha, wife of the Archduke Otto, nephew of the Emperor, Francis Josepha, and the brother and heir of Archduke Franz Ferdinand, heir presumptive to the throne, has been successfully operated upon for appendicitis by Professor Hochennegg. A fortnight ago Prof. Hochennegg performed a similar operation upon the Emperor's grand daughter, Princess Elizabeth, of Windischgratz.

Loss of a Steamer.

London, March 27.—A dispatch from Lisbon says that in a terrible storm off the northern Portguguese coast last evening a ship, apparently a packet boat and believed to be a British vessel, sank with all hands in sight of the shore. It was impossible to render any assistance to the vessel owing to the fury of the storm.

New York Stock Market.

New York, March 27.—After an irregular opening and mixed price movements in the early trading the stock market became heavy and general declines ranging from 1 to over 2 points were sustained. There was selling in the last few minutes based on unfavorable news in regard to the bituminous coal situation, which the room believed would have an influence in the anthracite field. The room was disposed to take the bear side and put out lines of short stock on the theory that a reaction is now due, following the continued upward movement in progress since last Wednesday afternoon.

Germany Gives Way.

Yesterday's big general committee meeting, held in the conference hall, at Algeciras, Spain, was what must be taken as the settling one of the conference.

Germany formally gave way upon the police question, the only objection made being by Count von Tattenbach, who insisted upon the inspector having to report to the consular court, instead of to the Sultan, and was supported by M. Kazebrodski, the Austrian president at Tangier.

M. Revoil objected, and it was finally referred to a subcommittee, Prince Radowitz making that suggestion.

Death of Mr. Foard.

Mr. Norval E. Foard died in Baltimore yesterday after an illness of nine days from pneumonia. The deceased was born in Alexandria July 10, 1837, and received much of his education in private schools of Charleston, S. C., and at St. John's Academy, Alexandria, of which Rev. Richard L. Carne was the principal at the time. While pursuing his studies in the higher branches Mr. Foard taught at St. John's. He was afterward employed in the Clerk's office of the County Court, but for a short time only, being appointed librarian of the Alexandria Library, which position he held for several years. His father was Mr. Joseph Foard, formerly of Maryland, but for many years a resident of Alexandria. Before the civil war the subject of this notice was connected with a newspaper at Charleston, S. C., and with the old Baltimore Gazette. He enlisted in the Confederate army, but after seeing active service at the battle of Manassass secured a position in the Confederate treasury, which he held until the end of the war. Returning to Baltimore at the close of hostilities, Mr. Foard became a member of the editorial staff of the Sun. His connection with the Sun covered a period of over 40 years. During this period, in every position he occupied, he had the confidence of his employes because of his ability and his loyalty to the paper. Mr. Foard served the Sun in various capacities. He had been city editor, head of the Annapolis bureau, and editor of Maryland news. For many years he edited the Sun Almanac, including the edition of 1906. His acquaintance with public men and measures was large. Surviving him, besides a wife, who was Miss Emily J. Virdin, daughter of the late Dr. W. W. Virdin, of Harford county, are three children. Mr. Foard sent from Charleston, S. C., the first newspaper dispatch announcing the opening of hostilities in the civil war. The New York newspaper by which the dispatch was received, at first refused to publish it, believing the facts conveyed too highly improbable to be given credence.

Proposed Electric Line.

Mention was made recently in the Gazette of another electric line proposed to be built between Washington, this city and Mount Vernon. A gentleman of this city is in correspondence with some capitalists of New York concerning the matter and has received the following in reply to his last letter:

We are in receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. and have delayed answering because we have been looking into the proposition. The company should be organized in the first instance with an authorized capital stock of $4,000,000 for the purpose of issuing $2,000,000 six per cent. bonds, redeemable in say forty years, the proceeds of the bonds to be devoted to securing the necessary right and constructing the line from Mt. Vernon to the new bridge leading into Washington, etc. It would be necessary that bonds be increased to two million (instead of $1,500,000) owing to the fact that it would be necessary for you to arrange with a trust company in the first instance who will consent to endorse or redeem the issue at maturity; in consequence of there being no security offered in the meantime to the bondholders pending the necessary right of way and the construction thereof. This is the most important step for you to arrange in the beginning.

It is said that should another electric line be built it would be along the route laid out by the government for the proposed Mount Vernon avenue between Washington and Mount Vernon.

Libel Proceedings Dismissed.

The libel proceedings brought in Washington against the steamer Charles Malcalester, owned by the Mount Vernon Steamboat Company, by the National Sand Dredging Company, owner, and Frank V. Kuntz, master of the towboat Eugenia, were dismissed yesterday after a hearing before Justice Barnard, in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia. It was claimed by the libellants that they were entitled to $5,000, which is represented as about one-eighth of the value of the steamer Macalester, because the towboat Eugenia on the night of May 13, 1903, during a fire at the wharf, in which the ferry boat Columbia was destroyed, towed the Macalester into midstream and thereby prevented its destruction. The owners of the Macalester claimed that the steamer under her own steam and without assistance moved out into the middle of the stream and that any aid by the Eugenia was gratuitous.

Want Their Money Back.

Suit has been filed in the circuit court for Alexandria county, by F. C. Gosnell against Joseph Fields and Frank Fields, to recover $98, which, the complainant alleges, he lost while playing cards with "the defendants and their confederates" January 20 and 21, 1906, at Rosslyn. Mr. Gosnell has also filed another suit in the same court, naming Amos Donaldson and Harry Burrows as defendants, and alleging the loss of sums amounting to $128 in the same way. The complainant charges in his suit that he lost $100 while playing at cards with the "defendants and their confederates" December 30 and 31, 1905, at Rosslyn. The additional sum of $28 named, the complainant asserts, was lost while playing cards with "the defendants and their confederates" January 27, 1906, at the same place.

Recommend La France Engine.

At the meeting of the Board of Fire Wardens last night it was determined to announce to the committee of the City Council that the wardens favored the purchase of what is known as the American La France type of fire engine, manufactured at Elmira, N. Y. Proposals were also submitted from the manufacturers of the Nott engine at Minneapolis, and the Ahren at Cincinnati. The bid of the makers of the American La France apparatus was the lowest, besides a number of duplicate parts of the engine will be furnished by the makers.

Missonary Seeks Lodging.

Among those who applied at the station house last night for lodging was a colored man who gave his name as William Gray, from Washington. He said he was a missionary, and carried a stock of Bibles and religious literature. Chief Webster, who was on duty at the time, remembering the injunction, "Be not forfetful to entertain strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unaware," made the darkey as comfortable as possible for the night.

Partridges.

Six dozen partridges, purchased in Alabama by a number of gentlemen of this city to be turned loose in this vicinity, were on exhibition at the store of Hamilton & Co. today and attracted much attention. More are to be brought here at an early date and will be liberated on farms in Fairfax county below this city. A number of Alexandrians are interested in this work, which was started last fall by Judge J. K. M. Norton.

Appropriate Masonic exercises will be held throughout the country on that day.

Trouble Adjusted.

It can be authoritatively stated that the threatened labor troubles at the Portner brewery may soon be adjusted and the serious consequences of a rupture averted. A committee, representing the operatives, met in conference with the brewery officials yesterday, and it is said that a basis was reached, by mutual concessions, upon which an agreement satisfactory to both sides is possible. This announcement will be read with gratification by all classes of the community.

Upon motion Thos. H. Lion was elected secretary of the committee.

Upon motion of Mr. Boothe, the following resolution was adopted;

Be it resolved by the democratic district committee of the Eighth congressional district:

1. That a primary election for the purpose of nominating a democratic candidate for Representative in Congress be held in the various counties and towns, in this district and in the city of Alexandria, from sunrise to sunset on the 20th day of June, 1906.

2. That the respective county and city committees shall select and appoint the judges and clerks who shall conduct the election in their respective counties and city.

3. That public notice be given in the democratic papers of this district of this election. And that all persons who desire to be candidates shall give notice thereof, in writing, to George S. 4. That if only one person shall comply with this requirement this committee will meet and announce that fact, and declare that person the democratic nominee, in which event no election will be held.

5. That should any funds remain in the hands of the chairman, after paying the expenses of said election, they shall be divided pro rata among the several candidates.

6. That at said election all white democrats, who are or will be legal voters at the general election, shall be allowed to vote.

Upon motion the committee adjourned.

TUESDAY EVENING, MAR. 27, 1906.

Killed Daughter and Himself.

Less than three hours before the time set for her wedding yesterday Pansy E. Townsend was shot and mortally wounded by her father, Joseph P. Townsend, in their home in Everett, Mass.. Townsend then ended his life with a bullet.

Miss Townsend was to have been married to Francis E. Perry, of Fort Myers, Fla., at 6 o'clock last night, at the People's Temple, Boston. Early in the afternoon the father sent the only other member of the family, his fifteen-year-old son, Joseph, to East Boston on an errand connected with the coming wedding. The boy returned about 4:30 and let himself into the house with a key. Calling to his father and receiving no answer, he pushed open the sitting room door and entered.

On the floor lay the dead body of his father, the head in a pool of blood and a small rifle across the knees. Beside him was a revolver of a heavy caliber. Miss Townsend lay upon a couch at the side of the room, and, according to the boy's statement, was still alive. The boy tried to force some brandy down his sister's throat and, failing, hurried after doctors. When they arrived the girl was dead. She had been shot through the head.

The only clue to the cause of the tragedy was a note written by Townsend. It was dated yesterday and read:

"At 3:40 I have taken my daughter's life and my own. I do this rather than see her the wife of Francis Perry."

So far as is known Townsend had nothing against Perry, and the supposition is that Townsend's mind was unbalanced by reason of his love for his daughter and his brooding over the prospect of separation from her.

Townsend was formerly mate on a vessel sailing from Boston. He was born in Baltimore fifty-six years ago. His wife had been dead several years. Miss Townsend was twenty-five years of age.

Starving to Death.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair St., Columbus O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters; with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed." Best health Tonic on earth. 50c. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons druggists.

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several does that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Can you believe you senses?

When two of them, taste and smell, having been impaired if not utterly destroyed, by Nasal Catarrh, are fully restored by Ely's Cream Balm, can you doubt that this remedy deserves all that has been said of it by the thousands whom it has cured? It is applied directly to the affected air passages and begins its healing work at once. Why not get it today? All druggists, 50c, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York, on receipt of 50 cents.

Ocean Boiling.

After sailing through miles of water so hot that the cook declared he was able to boil eggs in the steam that arose from it, the British steamer Lothian arrived at New York yesterday from Japan and China. The boiling water is supposed to have been caused by submarine volcanic disturbances, and altogether it is figured that the Lothian steamed through fifty miles of the midocean hot springs. The ship was between Hong-Kong and Cebu and was making twelve knots an hour in a tranquil sea when the water began to boil. The mate of the Lothian said yesterday that the first knowledge they had of the boiling of the water was when the ocean all around the ship began to crackle. It was like the noise of burning wood. At the same time the ocean began to bubble like a pot of oatmeal. There was no vapor such as might be expected when water boils. The atmosphere for twenty-five feet above the sea was perfectly clear, but that steam arose until it was condensed by the air. No distinct shock was felt, but the ship trembled "like it had chills and fever." The sea resembled a huge pot of boiling water and the ship tumbled about for four hours before she passed through the boiling-water zone. Meanwhile the cargo grew hot and the crew feared for the consignment of fireworks that was on board. The cook says the ship was so hot that he made griddle cakes on the top of the rail. The members of the crew were almost frightened out of their wits. They had never heard of a boiling midocean and they were not calmed even by the griddle cakes or boiled eggs.

The Races.

At Benning yesterday the racing season of 1906 in the east was inaugurated in a manner befitting the importance of the spring meeting of the Washington Jockey Club. Many horses have been wintered at the track, and strings of thoroughbreds have been arriving every day for a week. When the bugler sounds the "assembly" more horses will be quartered at Benning than ever before, many of them racers of high class.

Officials of the club have been at the track for several days completing arrangements for the opening of the meeting. Since last fall numerous improvements have been made at Benning which will be appreciated by both owners and racegoers. The courses have been gone over thoroughly, the open winter having afforded opportunity for the working of the track until now it is in admirable condition. Needed changes and improvements in the grandstand and clubhouse have been made, and everything about the grounds is as spick and span as if it were quite new.

than that WHITE CLOVER HONEY we are offering you. It is the clearest and best ever sold on this market and would bring fancy prices elsewhere. We have a few pounds left and are going to sacrifice it right here at home at 15c a pound section. Order quick.

It's a genuine pleasure to see how many of those FAT PRUNES we send out in a day. Price still the same—4 pounds for a quarter.

Josh Billings said, "If you have to go out before breakfast, eat your breakfast first." If he were here today he would add "At least drink a strong cup of Yates's Bourbon Coffee." It's the right thing in the right place and invigorates the system like no other Coffee.

FINANCIAL

Yes, Absolutely Safe.

This corporation is as sound as any banking institution in Virginia. It has $275,000 PAID IN CAPITAL, and its total resources amount to THREE QUARTERS OF A MILLION DOLLARS. Don't you think this a good showing for a bank just twenty-four months old? Its management is conservative and in the hands of a directory composed of careful and successful business men. It numbers the finest business men among its depositors—it would like to number you. Why not open an account with us? We pay 3 PER CENT. interest in our Savings Department. Call and talk the matter over with us.
